URBNK wins best luxury mixed- use architecture award in Egypt.

June 2025 — Cairo, Egypt — Starlight Developments is proud to announce that URBNK, its flagship mixed-use development, has been recognized as Best Luxury Mixed-Use Architecture in Egypt at the prestigious 2025 Luxury Lifestyle Awards.

Designed in-house by the Starlight Design Office in collaboration with HAFEZ CONSULTANTS, implemented by the renowned architect Mohamed Essam Hafez, URBNK represents a bold new chapter of commercial developments in Egypt. The project showcases Starlight's signature commitment to architectural excellence, innovative design, and the creation of vibrant, future-ready communities.

“Our aim is to surpass expectations at every turn—and this award is a testament to the ambition, precision, and partnership that define Starlight's approach to design,” said Sherif AbouTaleb, CEO of Starlight Developments.

Starlight Developments extends its heartfelt congratulations to Hafez Consultants and all partners who contributed to the success of URBNK. Together, they have redefined what is possible.
